Introduction

At a time when independence was reigning, the glorification of human dignity became the priority direction of reforms carried out in the country, ensuring everyone's rights and freedoms, legitimate interests. In the strategy of action, a number of effective reforms and a number of tasks were carried out in this regard. In particular, significant progress has been achieved in a number of areas such as ensuring the rule of law, solving problems that have plagued the population, preventing torture, ensuring openness and transparency, strengthening freedom of speech, especially glorifying human dignity through the introduction of new rules in the process of working with appeals of the population. The above-mentioned reforms are the basis of the bari Action Strategy.

The international community has repeatedly recognized Uzbekistan's experience of committing crimes, pardoning those who sincerely regret it and facilitating their adaptation to society, returning women and children from the battlefields within the framework of "Mercy" operations, taking care of them. At present, the project of the new Uzbek development strategy for 2022-2026, which is presented to the general public discussion, is associated with the consistent continuation of good deeds in this direction and promotion to a higher level, significant proposals and initiatives are being put forward. In particular, public control has also been given priority in order to establish human dignity as the main criterion for this process by ensuring the legitimacy unconditionally in the application of measures related to legal influence on citizens, restriction of freedom of movement.

Another important goal in the development strategy project is the transformation of the activities of Public Administration on the basis of the principle of “orientation of citizens to serve”. The main focus of the Bunda is the principle of ” State - Public Servant ” of all directions of activity of ministries and departments on the basis of which the direction for serving the citizen will be focused. Life itself is clearly expressed in the fact that this issue is of great importance in the end .First of all, the peace of the land, mutual respect, kindness and solidarity among the values, the family, parents, relatives, Aries - army will be the main base for the sustainable and lasting human value. PF-4947 decree of the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan “on the strategy of actions for the further development of the Republic of Uzbekistan”on large-scale reforms carried out during the years of independence in the country was an important foundation for strengthening national statehood and sovereignty, ensuring the inviolability of state borders of security and Law Order, the rule Necessary conditions have been created for decent life of the people, realization of the creative potential of citizens .At present, an in-depth analysis of the country's path of development, the current global market conjuncture is changing dramatically, competition in the global environment is increasing, and a completely new approach and principle for more sustainable and accelerated State-Building is required to develop and implement. It aims to further enhance the reforms carried out, to create conditions for the rapid development of the state and society in all spheres, to glorify the human dignity, to modernize the country and to implement the priority directions for liberalization of all spheres of life.

The strategy of action on five priority areas of development of the Republic of Uzbekistan in 2017-2021, developed as a result of a comprehensive study of the current issues of the population and entrepreneurs ' thinking, analysis of the current legislation, the practice of law enforcement and advanced foreign experience, as well as extensive public discussion, was approved and a number of reforms Promotion and protection of human rights in Uzbekistan, human dignity-one of the main directions of the policy is the glorification of value and compliance with them. In 2017-2021, within the framework of the strategy of action on five priority areas of development of the Republic of Uzbekistan, measures aimed at ensuring personal, political, economic, social and cultural rights are being implemented. The issues of ensuring human rights and freedoms in the country, glorifying human dignity are becoming the main criteria and basis of democratic reforms aimed at creating comfortable and decent living conditions for citizens. International human rights standards are being systematically and gradually implemented into national legislation and the practice of applying law. Currently, the norms of international documents in the field of human rights and freedoms of more than 80 countries are reflected in the national legislation of Uzbekistan. One of the main tasks of the state authorities is to radically improve the life of the people on the basis of the principle that” human interests are above all", to continue the large-scale socio-economic reforms carried out to glorify the human value, to increase the welfare of the population and to raise its social protection.

In addition, in order to ensure the continuity and continuity of the reforms, a new strategy of development of Uzbekistan was announced on the basis of the principle of “from strategy of action—towards development strategy”, which is aimed at continuing the path of democratic reforms initiated by the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan, and whose main criterion is full realization of the This strategy is also significant, since every citizen living in the country is determined to glorify the human value, his rights and freedoms, legal interests are the highest value. Human dignity is the basis of the strategy of action. The principle of “for human dignity”, defined as the main criterion in the new development strategy of Uzbekistan, implies the creation of decent living conditions for each citizen. In particular, during the past period, radical changes were made in all areas on this principle . It is not surprising that the name of the year 2022 is also called “glorification of human dignity”, which was built on the basis of a high idea of human dignity. The strategy of action of the president of the country on five priority areas of development of Uzbekistan in 2017-2021 has been developed as a result of a comprehensive study of topical issues of concern to the population and entrepreneurs, analysis of legislation, law enforcement practice and foreign experience. The strategy of action is carried out in five stages, considering the approval of a separate one-year state program, based on the naming of the year on each of them . The essence of the five main directions is presented below:

Further strengthening the role of the chambers of the Oliy Majlis, political parties in the deepening of democratic reforms and modernization of the country;

1.Ensuring the rule of law and further reform of the judicial system;

2.Development and liberalization of the economy ;

3.Development of the social sphere;

4.Ensuring security, nation-wide harmony and religious tolerance and deep thought-out, mutually beneficial practical foreign policy priorities.

a) To further strengthen the role of Parliament and political parties in the deepening and modernization of democratic reforms aimed at improving the construction of the state and society , to reform the state management system, to develop the organizational and legal framework of the state service, to improve the system of "electronic government", to increase the quality and efficiency of public services, to implement;

b) To strengthen the guarantees of reliable protection of the independence of the judicial authority and the rights and freedoms of citizens, aimed at ensuring the rule of Law and further reforming the judicial and legal system, to increase the effectiveness of administrative, criminal, civil and economic legislation, the fight against crime and the system of prevention of offenses, full implementation of the;

s) To strengthen macroeconomic stability and maintain high economic growth rates, to increase the competitiveness of the national economy, to modernize and develop agriculture, to continue the initiative and structural reforms to reduce state participation in the economy, to protect the right to private property and to further strengthen its rule of law, to encourage the development of small business and private entrepreneurship, to, active involvement of foreign investments in the sectors and regions of the country's economy through socio-economic development of districts and Cities Without Borders and borders, improvement of investment climate;

d) Development of the social spheretirishga consistent increase of employment and real incomes of the population, improvement of the system of social protection and health care, increase of socio-political activity of women and girls, restoration of affordable housing, development and modernization of road transport, engineering communications and social infrastructure, development of educational, cultural, science, literature, art and sports spheres, improvement of State;

e) To Strengthen the sovereignty of the state independence aimed at ensuring security, nation-wide harmony and religious tolerance, conducting foreign policy in a deeply thought-out, mutually beneficial and practical spirit, to form an environment of security, stability and harmony on the side of Uzbekistan, to strengthen the international prestige of the country.

As a conclusion from the point of view of the fact that the protection of human rights, the glorification of human dignity is a continuous process, it is possible to say that the strategy of Uzbekistan's actions has set important tasks and goals for the past five years in the country to raise human value. And for their implementation, all are responsible. Zero is one of the main tasks of harmony and harmony for the future and development of the country. Having analyzed in depth the complex processes of the world scale and the results of the reforms carried out by the country of Uzbekistan, in the following years on the basis of the principle of “for human dignity” the development of the people's welfare, transformation of economic sectors and entrepreneurship it is necessary to work on the basis of these reforms, defining the priority directions of reforms aimed at the rapid development, unconditional provision of human rights and freedoms, human dignity and human interests, as well as the formation of an active civil society.
